

Christmas Cheer in Kirkintilloch

Kirkintilloch's celebrations for Christmas 2008 are set to be the best ever and the town is heading for an even brighter future. The festive fun gets underway when Real Radio DJ Paul Harper switches on the Christmas Lights on Friday 28 November at 6pm in the Regent Gardens.

- Families can enjoy kiddie rides, a fireworks display, live music and entertainment
- For the first time ever there will be a three-day Continental Christmas Market in Union Street from Friday until Sunday (28 -30 Nov)
- There will be canal cruises with Santa every Saturday and Sunday from 29 November until the last weekend before Christmas - tickets from the Forth & Clyde Canal Society at Townhead Slipway, Kirkintilloch.

Kirkintilloch town centre has everything you need this Christmas and it couldn't be easier to get there with regular bus services and free and convenient parking. And there will be no road works affecting the roads into Kirkintilloch Town Centre throughout December. The Council is determined to ensure that the town's Christmas celebrations are unaffected by the Link Road plans.

So whether it's food or flowers, gifts or gadgets, bikes or baubles, trees or turkeys, Kirkintilloch has it all this Christmas.
